

I believe that XM Radio's excellent service should not be impeded by the NAB. The NAB should strive harder to meet XM's level of service instead of looking for protection from lawmakers. I support XM's ability to provide any programming that their subscriber's demand and deserve.